

БелИСА

DIASPORA WORKSHOP ON QUANTUM TECHNOLOGIES

21 November 2017, Minsk, Belarus

AGENDA

14.00 – 16.00

Invited talks of the 4 distinguished EU experts - representatives of Belarusian scientific diaspora, Session Tu21(C) “Scattering and Communication”,
<http://master.basnet.by/icqoqi2017/ICQOQI2017program.pdf>

Venue: BELARUS Hotel, 15 Storozhevskaya str.

16.20 – 18.30

Round table: presenting the international cooperation experiences and discussing prospective topics and instruments over a cup of tea

Venue: MOSCOW House, 86, Kommunisticheskaya str. (next to BELARUS hotel)

Moderators: Dmitri Mogilevtsev, Institute of Physics & Olga Meerovskaya, BelISA

Tour-de-table

Olga Meerovskaya, BelISA, EaP PLUS partner, H2020 Coordinator in Belarus:

- EaP PLUS project and its instruments to support Belarus – EU cooperation at the level of research teams
- Promising niches for collaboration on quantum technologies in H2020 in 2018-2020 and available instruments

Participants, both diaspora representatives and local researchers from academic sector and industry with up to 10-15’ oral presentations on the following topics:

- overview of the recently completed and ongoing international projects that may provide basis for new applications,
- specific challenges or concrete project ideas that could be jointly implemented in H2020, COST or other fora;

ppt and other presentation materials are welcome but not obligatory.

Discussion of prospective topics and instruments (all participants)

Wrap-up and closure

This project has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under grant agreement No 692471.